Weinhard's Lager Beer.SOCIETY

Miss Violet Bowby entertained a few of her friends with a luncheon on Friday afternoon.

The ladies of the St. Mary's Catholic church gave one of their enjoyable card parties on Tuesday evening in their hall on Grand avenue. The prize winners in the game of whist were Mrs. Kelly, Mr. Moorhan, Mrs.
Regan and Mr. Brunold.

Miss Alice Gray entertained a large number of her friends on Saturday afternoon at her home on Grand avenue. Those present enjoyed themselves playing progressive hearts, at which Miss Nellie Utzinger and Miss Anna Campbell were the fortunate contestants.

Miss Elizabeth Kopp, who moved with her parents from this city to Bozeman, Mont., two years ago, was married to Mr. William Haley of that city on Tuesday, June 28, and from the accounts of the affair in the Bozeman papers the event was one of the most elaborate weddings that has taken place in that city. Father O'Brien conducted the wedding ceremony, which took place at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a few friends and the relatives of the bride and groom. The parlor was decorated with yellow roses, while the other rooms were decorated in white and green. The bride was dressed in a handsome gown of cream voile over silk and carried bride roses. Miss Ethel Palmer was the maid of honor and wore a pretty gown of pale blue mousseline de sole. She carried white carnations. The Misses Lena, Hattie and Anna Kopp were bridesmaids. Mr.
Thomas Lake was the best man.
Promptly at 2 o'clock, Miss Ida Kountz started Lohengrin's beautiful wedding march on a piano which was a gift from the bride's father. The bridal party marched to the sitting-room, where the ceremony was performed under a large bell made by forget-me-nots and green leaves. Many handsome and costly presents were received. A reception was held from 2 until 5 o'clock, during which time a large number of friends called to offer congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Haley went to Hunter's Hot Springs for their wedding trip.

A very pretty linen shower was given by Miss Sadie Craug on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Lottie Bennett at the home of Mrs.
George H. George on Irving avenue.
The rooms throughout the stately residence were decorated in white and pink roses. Progressive euchre was the game provided for the amusement of those present and Mrs. Thing won the prize, which was a cut glass vase.
In the dining room the refreshment table was elaborately decorated in white and green. A beautiful wedding bell made of white roses hung over an imitation wedding cake, which formed the centerpiece, the cake being filled with miniature photos of Miss Bennett and Mr. Bell, which were the favors and had pale green ribbons fastened to them which extended to the place cards, which had wedding bells in hand painting on them. Miss Bennett and Mr. Bell are to be married in August at Gearheart Park. Those who enjoyed Miss Craug's hospitality were the Misses Higgins, Bowby, Bennett, Elmore, Hailestead, Hobson, Tallant, Sherman, Young and Heilborn, and Mesdames McConnell, Heilborn, Carruthers, Reames, Tallant, Marrs, Shields, Thing and Finch.

One of the most elaborate and enjoyable teas of the season was given by Mrs. Martin Foard on Thursday afternoon for a large number of her friends. The hall and rooms throughout the Foard residence on Seventeenth street were beautifully decorated with red, white and pink roses.
Those present spent a pleasant afternoon playing six-handed euchre, Mrs.
Henry McGowan, Mrs. J. A. Fulton and Mrs. H. F. Prael being the prize winners. Mrs. Foard was assisted by the Misses Frances Thomas, Foard, Peterson of San Francisco and Thain-quist of Tacoma and the Mesdames Logan, Lounsberry and Hildebrand, while those present were:

AUTOMOBILE RIDE FOR GRAND ARMY DELEGATES

Boston, July 2.—(Special Correspondence.)—As the Grand Army encampment time approaches, the work of the executive committee continues to absorb more and more of the time and attention of its members. This is true, also, of all the sub-committees.
A great effort is being made to have the entertainment features, of themselves, such as will attract a large number of visitors; and in this line a great deal of work is being done on the automobile parade.

This is not to be simply a long line of horseless carriages for the delegates to look at, but the latter are to be invited to step in and take a seat.
They will then be taken on a ride over one of the most historical routes that could be found in this country.
It will follow out the famous ride of Paul Revere. From within sight of the tower of the Old North church—from which the famous rider received his signal—and from within sight of the Bunker Hill monument, the party will move out on the bay road now known as Massachusetts avenue.

Over the Charles river into Cambridge the visitors will be taken past Harvard college and the old Washington elm, where Washington assumed command of the army of the revolution.
Here, also, will be seen the old Longfellow home, and the house where James Russell Lowell lived.

Over one of the finest roads in the country they will reach Lexington, where they will see the old Monroe tavern, which is rich in historical lore. Here is where Earl Percy, with his reinforcements, was enabled to hold back the American patriots while he converted the tavern into a hospital. In the barroom is to be seen a hole made by a British musket-ball.

Here, also, is a chair in which Washington sat while on his visit to Lexington in 1778.

An interesting thing is the memorial fountain, situated on the battle green, facing the British line of march. It is surmounted by a statue of Captain John Parker, who commanded the first military organization that met the soldiers of England. Many other historical places and houses are in this old town.

Six miles beyond Lexington, the visitors will arrive at Concord, also rich in its historical associations.
Some of the superstitious people of Concord fully believe that the soldiers of Concord will be called out for actual war service April 19, 1947. They base their ideas on the following sequence of military events in which the town's militia has taken part:

At 1 o'clock in the morning of April 19, 1869, an alarm was sounded and the local company was formed on the village green. The clergyman came out to bless them and to offer prayer before they marched to Boston to take part in the Edmund Andros rebellion.
Eighty-six years thereafter, to a day and to an hour, the minute-men of Concord were again summoned, on the alarm of Paul Revere. Again they assembled on the village green; again did the clergyman come out to offer prayer, and then they waited through the early morning hours of that spring day until they went out to meet the British in battle. Between 12 and 1 o'clock on the morning of the 19th of April, 1861, the captain of the Concord militia was summoned to assemble his company. It was done on the same ground where, twice before, their predecessors had gathered. This was just 86 years, to the day and hour, after the last preceding force had come together. For that reason, it is believed that on the date above-mentioned the Concord troops will again be called out.

This town is also rich in literary associations. Here is the old manse where Nathaniel Hawthorne brought his bride, in 1842. Here is the old Alcott house, the home of the father of Louisa May Alcott. Emerson's home is another to be seen, and still another is that of Henry D. Thoreau.

To form some idea of the length of this automobile parade, it will only be necessary to reflect that 1,500 or 1,600 visitors will be carried in the line.
The number of automobiles necessary to make this procession will be large; the line will be very long.

As they start, they will diverge, one-half pursuing one route and the other half another, meeting at a point on the route, probably the Concord, each passing in review before the other section. It is estimated that there will be over 700 automobiles in this procession.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Chas. Rogers' drug store.
